SUPPLEMENT

1. In spite of government assurances that the guerrillas are being annihilated and will shortly cease being a problem, [REDACTED] the winter months 25X1X6 will see a continuation of the fight in the North, barring intervening political solutions. There are no indications yet that the Greek Army is in a position to put an end to the fighting in the North; and there are abundant indications that KKE, feeling a measure of success, will push the fight.
2. Reports have continued through December to indicate that the right-wing is being heavily armed with the latest automatic weapons. [REDACTED] Mavromachalis is playing an important part in this. [REDACTED] 25X1X6 Mavromachalis was removed from office because it was found that he had diverted a large number of automatic arms from the Army to right-wing para-military organizations such as "X". In any event, there is every reason to believe that the two political extremes in this country are well armed at the present time.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
